

Super English

Level 4 - Unit 16
Transport - Lesson 3

Transport - Vocabulary

terminal: a building or area where transport vehicles load or unload passengers or cargo (noun)

The airport terminal was very busy with travelers.

Transport - Vocabulary

ferry: a boat or ship that carries passengers and often vehicles across a body of water (noun)

The cars drove off the ferry after it crossed the river.

Transport - Vocabulary

dock: a structure on the edge of the water where ships/boats are loaded and unloaded (noun)

They parked their boat along the dock so they could go on land and cook some BBQ.

Transport - Vocabulary

explore: to travel through an area to learn about it or to search for something in it (verb)

We explored the city on our bikes during our vacation.

Let's Read!

Super English

Ferry Ride to Max Island

Nestled away in the northwest corner of America lives a boy named Max. He is ten years old and loves adventures. One sunny day, his parents announced, "Max, we're taking a ferry to visit an island near Seattle!" Max, always ready with a witty remark, said, "An island? Do we get to meet pirates?" he joked.

Ferry Ride to Max Island

The family drove to the Seattle ferry terminal. The ferry was pulling into the dock. It was huge, sturdy, and looked safe. "It's like a floating hotel," Max observed, impressed by its size. They bought their tickets and walked down to the dock to board. Max watched the cars being parked inside. "This ferry eats cars for breakfast!" he joked.

Ferry Ride to Max Island

The family found seats on the upper deck. Max walked over and leaned on the railing, feeling the sea breeze and watching the city shrink behind them.

During the ferry ride, Max saw seagulls soaring and fish leaping from the water. "Hey fish, are you racing us to the island?" he called out, laughing at his own joke.

Ferry Ride to Max Island

Finally, they arrived at the island. It was an awesome place with lush forests and rocky beaches. "Welcome to what I now call Max Island!" he declared, stepping off the ferry. They explored the island, finding hidden trails and watching boats in the distance. "I'm an explorer, discovering unknown lands," Max imagined.

Ferry Ride to Max Island

After a fun-filled day, it was time to return. As the ferry departed, Max waved at the island, saying, "Goodbye, Max Island. We'll be back for more adventures."

The trip had been a blast, and Max couldn't wait to tell his friends about his day trip from Seattle to 'Max Island' and secretly hoped for more such adventures.

Let's do Grammar!

Find the Mistakes!

Read each sentence and correct the mistakes. There may be more than one mistake.

1. Yesterday, he go to the cinema with his friends.
2. She always take her dog for walk in the morning.
3. We were exciting about the upcoming school trip.
4. I have a two brothers and one sister.
5. He don't understand the question in the test.
6. She bought a new dress for the party.
7. They playing soccer in the park every weekend.
8. I likes to eat pizza at Fridays.
9. He didn't came to school yesterday.
10. We watching a movie together last night.

Phonics

Consonant-le

A consonant-le syllable is a final syllable with one consonant followed by l and silent e

dle

paddle

candle

poodle

ladle

handle

bundle

ple

apple

maple

purple

simple staple ripple

Super English

See you Next time!

