

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

CULTURES

1 Read the passage then complete the note below.

BEAUTIFUL THAILAND

Thailand is a beautiful country in Southeast Asia. It shares borders with Laos, Cambodia, Malaysia, and Myanmar. The capital city of Thailand is Bangkok, a busy and exciting place with many markets, tall buildings, and street food stalls.

The official currency is the Thai baht, and people speak Thai. Many people in Thailand can also speak basic English, especially in tourist areas.

Thailand is famous for its rich culture and kind people. One important part of Thai culture is Buddhism. You can see many beautiful temples across the country. A temple is a special place where people go to pray. Sometimes you may also see a monk. Monks live a simple life and spend much of their time in prayer and learning.

Thai people love to celebrate. One of the most popular festivals is Songkran, the Thai New Year. During this festival, people throw water at each other in the streets to express joy and welcome the new year. It is a fun and happy time for everyone.

Whether you visit the beaches in the south, the mountains in the north, or the temples in Bangkok, Thailand is full of surprises and warm smiles.

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

CULTURES

COUNTRY:

Location

Flag

Facts

Location:

Capital city:

Currency:

Language:

Make your own sentences using given words

1. temple:

2. monk:

3. festival:

4. express:

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

MAY/MIGHT/COULD HAVE

- 1 Read each situation. Match it with the correct sentence using may/might have or could have.

A

You looked tired this morning.

•

You didn't bring your laptop.

•

You lost in the forest.

•

You failed the driving test.

•

You got wet in the rain.

•

B

You could have brought an umbrella.

•

You might have forgotten it.

•

You could have practiced more.

•

You might have gone to bed late.

•

You could have used a map.

•

- 2 Complete the sentences using may/might have + past participle, or could have + past participle so they have a similar meaning.

1. It's possible he forgot the meeting. (might)

→ He _____ the meeting.

2. I'm not sure, but they were probably tired. (may)

→ They _____ tired.

3. She had the chance to call her friends, but she didn't. (could)

→ She _____ friends.

4. Maybe we left the keys at the restaurant. (might)

→ We _____ at the restaurant.

5. We had enough money, but we didn't buy a new car. (could)

→ We _____ a new car.

6. They didn't win the game, but it was possible. (could)

→ They _____ the game.