The Trip Begins

Emma, Jake, Lily, Ben, and Mia felt very excited. They were going on a camping trip with their camp counselor, Mr. Greg. The children packed clothes, food, and flashlights into their bags. Then they walked together into the forest. The trees were tall and green. Birds sang above them. The air felt fresh and cool. Everyone smiled and talked as they hiked to the campsite.

1. Where did the children hike?
2. What would you pack for a camping trip?

Setting Up Camp

When they arrived, Mr. Greg showed the children what to do. He taught them how to pitch their tents and make a safe campfire. Emma, Jake, and Lily looked for sticks and twigs on the ground. Ben and Mia worked together to set up the tents. The children helped each other and listened carefully. Soon, the camp was ready, and everyone felt proud and happy.

1. What did Mr. Greg do with the children?
2. Is it good to help each other? Why?
