Field Trip Excitement

Mrs. Carla told her class about a fun field trip to the city. The kids felt very happy and excited. They talked loudly and smiled a lot. They wanted to see tall skyscrapers and visit a big museum. Some children looked out the window and imagined the city already. It was a special day for learning and fun together. Everyone listened and waited for the trip to begin soon.

1. What did the class want to see and go to?
2. Why do you think field trips are fun?

Walking in the City

The class rode the bus into the city together. After the bus stopped, they got off slowly. They walked on the sidewalk to stay safe. Mrs. Carla told them to walk nicely and stay together. When they crossed the street, they used the crosswalk. Cars stopped, and everyone looked both ways. The city was busy, loud, and full of tall buildings all around them.

1. Where did they walk to stay safe?
2. How can children stay safe near roads?
