A Stormy Picnic

Emily and her family planned a picnic at the park on Sunday morning. They like to eat lunch outside when the weather is nice. Emily carried the basket, and her dad spread a big blanket under a tree. Everyone laughed and talked while they sat down. Just then, Emily heard thunder far away. She looked up and saw dark clouds moving fast across the sky.

1. What did Emily hear in the distance?
2. What food would you bring to a picnic?
Why?

Looking for Safety

Emily's mom feels worried when storms come. She said, "We need to find shelter soon." The wind got stronger, and rain began to pour on the grass. Emily saw bright lightning flash in the sky, and it made her jump. The family knew the tree was not safe anymore. They walked quickly through the park and searched for a building nearby.

1. Why was the tree not safe?
2. What do you do when it rains suddenly?
