Dialogue 1 – Egg Hunt

Practice the dialogue and answer the question.

A small, fluffy, light-colored dog is sitting on a grey surface. The dog's hair is styled with two large, bright green bows on top of its head. The dog is looking down and to the right.

Liam: Are you ready for the egg hunt?

Maya: Yes! I want to find the most eggs.

Liam: I found five last year.

Maya: I want to find ten this year!

Liam: Let's look near the trees.

Maya: Good idea!

Question: Where would you look for Easter eggs?

Dialogue 2 – Easter Bunny

Practice the dialogue and answer the question.

Emma: Do you think the Easter Bunny is real?

Noah: Maybe! It's a fun idea.

Emma: I hope it brings me chocolate eggs.

Noah: I want Peeps and a small toy.

Emma: That sounds great!

Noah: Let's check in the morning.

Question: What would you want from the Easter Bunny?

Would You Rather (Easter version)

Tell your teacher what you'd rather do and why.

Would you rather decorate eggs or go on an egg hunt?

Would you rather eat chocolate or marshmallow Peeps?

Would you rather wear bunny ears or carry a basket all day?

See you next time!
